

Editor and Manager.

A small newspaper just and true, is natural to the best of men.

WEEKLY JOURNAL.—An inveterate collector, two days after his marriage, on a visit to his parents, who had handed a copy of the Memphis Journal, and announced the table by expressing his preference for the Wanderer, what could have produced the sudden and rapid his conversion?—located the cause. His innocent mother said, "It had kept him awake the last two nights, out the table in a roar."

As an argument in favor of early marriage, we are told of a couple in Marlboro, Massachusetts, who are supposed to be the longest married of any in the state. They have lived together 75 years, having been respectively twenty and seventeen years of age when married.

Johnny, one bright evening, was standing by the window, gazing at the moon and stars, and after looking at them some time very intently, he turned and said to his mother, who was sitting by him, "Mamma, what are those bright little things in the sky? are they the sun's babies?"

SQUARE IN THE CIRCLE.—An exchange says that this mathematical proposition, which for a number of years have bothered the most obtuse mathematicians, has at last been definitely solved, and that too, in a manner to accommodate itself to the most simple understanding. It is simply to settle up your wife's bills for nouns at the dry goods store.

Central Academy.

The TRI STEES has leave to call public attention to this Institution, the semi-annual session of which opened on MONDAY, January 12th. The services of Mr. GID. B. McLEARY and Mrs. have been secured, as are for a permanent, and we are determined to maintain a first class MALE and FEMALE ACADEMY.

Our uncommonly healthy faculty, good Teachers, good neighborhood, and good water, constitute a rare combination, which we should elicit the patronage of everybody. Young men will be thoroughly prepared for college or business, and young ladies under the care of Mrs. McLeary will enjoy superior advantages, instructions on Piano and guitar on moderate terms. Board Boarding can be obtained in the immediate vicinity on very moderate terms, either for Males or Females, and a few young ladies can be accommodated at the house of the Principal, on the Academy lot.

For further particulars, address the Principal, or any of the Trustees.
